La Salle Art Show Allows CB Students to Showcase Their Talents

Emily DeRodeff
Photographer

The La Salle Art Exhibit has been a tradition at Christian Brothers for sixteen years. Students from all grades are welcome to submit the art work they are most proud of to the show. Art work of all mediums and of all shapes and sizes are considered for the show. This year paintings, photographs, and ceramic pieces have been accepted for the show including a tea pot created by Kara Bacchi (12) in Mr. Boriskin's D set last semester. Among the artists who submitted work to the show were Kate Collins (12), Veronica Mooney (12), and Alfredo Parra (12). Works by Veronica and Kate were featured on the decorative postcards announcing the show.

Alfredo Parra, a rising photographer at Christian Brothers, submitted three pictures and two will be exhibited. Alfredo received an expensive and high quality camera for his birthday and has been taking pictures every day since. He will be displaying a close up picture of a white flower and a picture of two roses on his
