Brother Bertram Plans To Attend Capital Convention

Brother Bertram, principal of Christian Brothers School, announced this week that he would fly to Washington, D. C., Sunday night, Oct. 9th, in order to attend a life adjustment education conference. The conference, sponsored by the Federal Security Agency, Office of Education will be in session from Oct. 10th to 13th, so Brother will not return to Sacramento until the 15th.

ONLY DELEGATE

According to Brother the conference will be devoted to dealing realistically and creatively with the problems of the individual student in individual schools. At present the committee in charge expects 150 delegates from thirty states. Brother is the only educator from this part of California planning to attend.

Brother pointed out that only schools which have a program of life adjustment on their curriculum have been invited. This is the first year Christian Brothers has had such a program. It was inaugurated this year by Brother Bertram under the title of Christian Living.

LATE DEPARTURE

REPORTER ASKS.. "WILL WE BEAT McCLATCHY?"..RECEIVES POSITIVE ANSWER

BY JIM CHURCH

With the prospects of a Christian Brothers victory over a McClatchy football team best in school history, our participants, rooters, and fans are anxiously awaiting today's classic.

Mental and material comparisons of the rivals point to the first Gael win in over ten years competition. Here are some noteworthy opinions on the score, possibility, and outcome of the game:

EX-MENTOR QUOTED

Dan D'Amico says: "Everybody's trying to jinx us but we'll win anyway. Whenever they prepare a rally before games, we lose. I'm not superstitious but that's the way it works."

Former coach Ray Curry was quoted five weeks ago on his view that the stumbling Lions would fall before the offensive onslaught of C.B.S. After the contest of November 4, he was much more certain of his own words.

Members of the McClatchy student body have been quick to admit that their spirit is low from being "spoiled" by so many continuous good seasons. Further, the only hopes of firing up their elated low morale are waiting for Thanksgiving.

CBS 21 - McCLATCHY 6

An absolute certainty was expressed by Jim "Ozzie" Osborne when he predicted that the Freeport Boulevard Institution would go down in defeat; further he mentioned the score would be McClatchy 6 - CBS 21.

Before the fateful Grant meeting Coach Ray Clemens was full of anticipation and believed that a victory over Grant would insure McClatchy's doom. After the same he was looking forward to swamping the Lions and proving decisively the superiority of the Gaels over the Pacers.

SENIOR SENTIMENT

Throughout the Senior class the realization prevails that here is the chance for recognition of such stalwart players as Dan Labey, Ken Orrick, Marvin Neves, Peter Vartanian, John Breerton, etc. "Paper" honors are dished during inter-city games, especially those played during the latter part of a season when culling and spotting have been completed. Our fighting team has shown first class coaching and ability, and justice will most decidedly be dealt to those deserving individuals.

Since Brothers student body, as always, represent Christian gentlemen we'll leave the unkind distinction of breaking McClatchy's losing streak up to the villainous Sacramento Dragons.

Well, tonight's the night. Yes, tonight is the night of the annual Gael-Lion grid fracas. This evening at 8:15 our boys will meet the representatives of the Freeport Boulevard Institution for the twelfth time in thirteen years. In previous meetings the underdog Irish squads have tasted defeat ten times and tied the McClatchy multitude once.

But this year promises to be different. Never has a favored CBS team lost to the Lions, and the Gaels will be favored for this one. Remember that this is the Brothers' squad that will set a new precedent and for this reason

Lorenz, Johnson Lead New Staff Of CBS Publication

In accordance with the traditional resignation of the editors of the Gael at the end of the first semester of their senior year, this issue of the paper is brought to you by a new staff.

With a co-editorship decided upon, instead of the customary single editorship, Don Johnson and Hermann Lorenz are publishing this issue. Hunter Galman was retained as sports editor. Due to the dual editorship, one feature page has come under the jurisdiction of the editors-in-chief, thus terminating the office of feature editor.

Lorenz has been writing for the Gael since the beginning of his sophomore year and during the past two semesters has been serving as associate editor. Johnson joined the staff during the second semester of his sophomore year.

Eight sophomores and two freshmen were added to the staff. They are sophomores Nick Zanze, Mack White, Glenn Freitas, Eliza Woycheshin, Edwin Bettschart, Bill Wexted, Ray Tucker, Pete Mikachob, sports, and Dennis Dorsey, artist. Roger Caetano, feature, and Henry Williams, news, were the two freshmen appointed.

Annual La Salle Club Frolic To Be Held Tomorrow, Sunday

By HENRY WILLIAMS

"Come to the Frolic" are the words of the La Salle Club members, as their annual spring event of two full days of fun, entertainment, dancing and games draws near. Tomorrow and Sunday at our school are the dates.

Because of its success last year the frolic is being extended to two days this year instead of the one day.

Chairman of this year's event is Albert Westlake, aided by John Derruti, Charles Ravellette, Hiney Finkelstein, Cy Puliz, Clarence Johnson and the active LaSalle Club members.

The dance Saturday night will begin from 9 P.M. to midnight with Eddie Halter's orchestra furnishing their well known swing music for this dance. Tickets are 75 cents each. For those who prefer to "chance it" instead of "dance it," the committee has arranged numerous games for both young and old. For instance there will be the Paalman Country Store that fills your kitchen with groceries; Bingo where everybody wins; and numerous other games. On Sunday from noon to 6 P.M., the LaSalle Club will present its

HANDBALL TOURNNEY

Plans are now underway for a handball tourney to begin on April 24. At the same time a horseshoe tournament will be held. Both of these annual bouts are expected to draw a large entry.
