Address, Mr. James Aiken, Head Football Coach,
University of Oregon

● Head Football Coach James Aiken of the University of Oregon this year led the Ducks to their first perfect conference season since 1895 and the best overall season in the history of the university, landing them in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas New Year's Day against Southern Methodist University.

Completing his second season at Oregon, Aiken coached the Ducks into a tie with the University of California for the Pacific Coast Conference championship, the Bears getting the nod for the Rose Bowl. Oregon lost but one game this year — that to mighty Michigan.
