ers School athletic fund, has been set for Friday, April 22.

Brother Eugene is a member of the CBS faculty and coaches the Gael basketball team. He served on the Frolic committee last year.

Matthews also announced the next meeting of the La Salle Club will be held at CBS Monday evening, February 7. The guest speaker will be Virgil D. Farnsworth, Commissioner of American Legion Baseball in Northern California.

Elmer Enos, coach of the Southside Post American Legion baseball team, composed entirely of CBS students, will review his team's chances in the forthcoming tournament. Register 1/6/49

HOLY ANGELS NINE BOWS TO CBS BUT LEAD LEAGUE

Sacramento. — Going into the final week of the first half of the Holy Angels School baseball team, although receiving for its first defeat at the hands of the Christian Brothers School, nine lead the Parochial League with four wins and one setback.

Ben Harrison, portly CBS right-hander, handcuffed the Holy Angels slugger, while Elias Sierra was whacked for nine safeties and an 8 to 6 defeat.

Hermann, CBS outfielder, walked the longest home run of the season when he poled a drive over the center fielder's head in the final frame. One runner was abroad at the time and the two markers were the margin of victory. Dana and Berry each had two singles to top the hitters.

The St. Joseph's nine split in two games last week, drubbing Sacred Heart, 17 to 12 and losing to Immaculate Conception by the same score. Mogan and Caetano were the winning hurlers.

St. Joseph's tallied 11 times in the first inning against Sacred Heart. Stevens relieved Hall to quiet the SJS batsmen but the damage had been done. Moreno's two doubles led the sluggers.

Immaculate Conception had two big innings, scoring seven in the second and eight in the third stanza. Stewart, Beane, Kirrens and When paced the batting attack.

Two tie games were played. St. Patrick's and St. Francis ended on an 8 to 8 tie, while Immaculate Conception battled St. Patrick's to a 14-all draw. The tie tests will be replayed, according to Ray Clemons, athletic director for the parochial schools.

The standings of May 1st are:

Holy Angels	4	1
Christian Brothers	3	2

11 Students From CBS Take Up Religious Work

During the Summer, 11 students from the Christian Brothers High School have been accepted for the priesthood or other aspects of religious life and now are studying in their chosen fields.

This was announced today by Brother Vincent, school principal, who said the group is a record number from CBS.

He said six graduates from last Spring's graduating class have entered either seminaries or novitiates and five students from the lower division have entered religious order juniorates.

The graduates and the religious vocations they have entered are:

Ernest Giles, the Jesuits at the Sacred Heart Novitiate in Los Gatos; Patrick McMahon, the Brothers of Mary at the Chaminade Novitiate in Santa Cruz; Robert Forster and Jack Colbert, the Christian Brothers Novitiate at Mont La Salle in Napa, Napa County, and Russell Terra and Richard Monday, the Jordan Seminary for secular priests in Michigan.

Lower division students and religious order juniorates entered are:

Anthony Lastufka, Harold Haag and Larry Fisher at Mont La Salle in Napa; James Morin, the Franciscan Seminary at Santa Barbara, and Barney Gilsen, the Oblates of St. Joseph at Santa Cruz.

THE SACRAMENTO UNION 7 Sunday, May 29, 1949 Sports Program At CBS Today

A general program of sports and entertainment will be held today at Christian Brothers School under auspices of the Sacramento Catholic High School Inter School Council. The program will get under way at 1 P. M.

CBS, St. Francis and St. Joseph High Schools will compete in sport activity, including two softball league playoffs.

Jean Kerrigan is in charge, assisted by Jack Wirts, Pat Harrison, Bart Lagomarsino, Dolores Dominguez and Margaret Cook.

In addition to the sports action, religious plays will take place tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Community singing

Clemons Greets 37 CBS Gridders In Spring Drills

Register 5/15/49

Sacramento.—Thirty seven Christian Brothers School footballers greeted Coach Ray Clemons Monday as the Gaels started spring practice on the Twenty First and Broadway field.

The Gaels, who abide by California Interscholastic Federation rulings, are allowed 15 days of practice.

Clemons stated the turnout for opening day did not reveal the complete squad. Several players are members of the Southside Junior American Legion baseball team and will not participate in spring drills, while others were out of town during a three day vacation.

Those who reported are Jim Blakeway, Jim Bamberry, Ed Risse, Larry Cloney, Ken Carlson, John Montaldo, Bill Warmby, Ken Flint, Dan Sozzi, Phil Sapunor, Noel Slakey, Gary Steffens, Ray Tucker, Dick Caetano, Marvin Neves, Bill Ross, Dan Lahey, Bob Benton, Pat O'Hare, Ronald Carissimi, Sam Vartanian, Pete Vartanian, George Lee, Lawrence Santos-Coy, John McCormack, Jim Daly, Eugene Angelo, Anatole Balmy, Gene Anderson, Jack Kearns, John Breerton, Lou Torres, Andrew Smolich, Bruce Julian, Dennis Dorsey, Dan D'Amico, Hunter Paalman, Vince Guerrero, manager.
