Inexperienced Bees Show Poor Record, Even Less Talent

This year's offering of the Bee squad has as poor a record as the Varsity has good, having won but one out of six contests thus far this season. They beat St. Mary's of Stockton Bees by a close margin of 35-31. Their-worst defeat came two days later at the hands of Sacramento High, who has reputedly the best JV in the Sac-Joaquin Conferencel

Bahlhorn, Pisani Shine

Forward Bob Bahlhorn is currently leading the scoring parade with 38 points, while Vince Pisani at guard is the most valuable floor man. The reason for the Bee-team's failure to come through is probably the lack of material, especially as contrasted to last year's squad.

Coach Giles Leigerot has been switching Bart Lagomarsino and Dick Brereton at the pivot spot and Dick Escajeda and Bill Mulderrig at the other guard position. Greg Crane is none too secure in his forward slot.

Little Hope

There seems to be little hope for the inexperienced lightweights unless they can make a reversal of form, and fast. Perhaps as the season goes on they will shape up better, but one thing sure they have everything to gain-nothing to lose.
